Brampton Based Recruiting Firm Celebrates 10 Years

On August 15, 2010 Brampton based Recruitment & Executive Search firm celebrates 10 years of helping their clients vision seeing something bigger in their future – and drawing the most useful and talented resources available to assist them with that task – great people.

Co-founders Linda Ford, President and Lori Robinson, Vice President embarked on their journey of entrepreneurship the summer of 2000. New, fresh, honest, passionate, and driven; they achieved so much success their first year they had to triple their facility space.

A boutique firm with service oriented approach has enabled them to partner successfully with clients in Service, Manufacturing, Distribution, Automotive, Aerospace, Food & Beverage, and The Not For Profit Sector and more. They recruit top leadership candidates – and then help them build their teams.

They contribute their success to developing solid and long lasting relationships and delivering exceptional guaranteed services to solidify those partnerships. They have also recognized that their success would not be possible without having an exceptions team of their own. The entrepreneurs approach to their own team is to source talented, dedicated HR professionals that epitomize the values and ethics of Access Careers. Their reputation in the Executive Search arena is that their professionalism and ethics are second to none.

A testament to their success is that many of their clients today are the same customers who gave them their start in 2000. Additionally, many of those associates who found careers along the way through Access Careers have become great clients too.

Ford and Robinson have not forgotten about giving back during their business journey. The list of organizations that they have either held leadership roles in or supported is extensive. They believe that it is critically important for the communities they live and work in to be healthy and prosperous and give generously of their time and have made significant contributions. They are held in high regard in the community and their business partnership model is mirrored by others.

They are celebrating their 10 year by moving their Brampton Corporate Head Office into the heart of the City of Brampton. Their new home in the downtown core is at 57 Mill Street North, Suite #107, Brampton, Ontario L6X 1S9. Their new location is the exquisite Hewitson Shoe Factory that was redeveloped into trendy business lofts. Linda and Lori know that this will be a great place to grow their business for the next 10 years of the journey and thank all of those that contributed along the way.
